

NOW IN MARIN:

Tender Tracks Outdoor Nature Awareness Pre-School

Open for Registration!

Tender Tracks Outdoor Nature Awareness Preschool is a program that honors and respects the inherent need for the young child to have ample time with nature, in order to develop a healthy bond and relationship to the natural world and all who dwell therein. Through stories, songs and explorations, the children will go on playful adventures into the heart of nature.

Programs Offered:

Tender Tracks is offering a program for 3-year-olds on Wednesdays from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm, and a program for 4- to almost 5-year-olds on Tuesday & Thursday from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm. Since 1995, Tender Tracks has provided extraordinary learning opportunities in the outdoors for hundreds of young children.

Informational Night:

You are invited to join Wendolyn Bird, Tender Tracks Director, for an inspiring evening to learn more about this one-of-a-kind program and how you can reserve your child's space for the Fall 2018 school year.

About Your Guide:

Wendolyn Bird, long time mentor of young children and workshop leader for educators, care providers and parents will be your guide. Wendolyn brings a unique and outstanding set of talents and experience to her work. Since the mid-1990s, she has been giving workshops and trainings incorporating stories, songs and music that are based on her many years of running her own 100% outdoor pre-school, Tender Tracks Tales and Trails, as well as her popular outdoor Summer Camps for older children. Wendolyn has taught for many years in schools with diverse populations, and is a professional storyteller and musician. She has a wonderful book and CD of nature activities, stories and songs called Tales from Earth to Sky, published by Hooked on Nature.
